

Australian Government
Department of Immigration and Border Protection

Character requirement

You and all family members applying for the visa with you must meet our character requirement.

Usually, family members not applying for the visa must also meet our character requirement.

So that we can decide if you meet this requirement, you need to provide police certificates from countries you have lived in. You might also need to provide additional documents.

There is more information about our character requirement.